Letter

Of Samuel Caruthers to his Constituents, explaining his past action, defining his present position, and the position of parties.

To MY CONSTITUENTS: During my short Con-ressional career I have never before had occasion gressional career I have never before had occasion to especially address you by letter. I have hitherto been content to rest upon the reasons for my action, declared on the floor of the House, or stand silently upon the record I had made by my votes. The reasons for doing so now arise from the breaking down of the old wall which divided parties—the new elements which have been mingled into our national politics—the alarming tems now distinctly formed in the country—the peril that threatens the very existence of our inperil that threatens the very existence of our in-stitutions, and that solemn duty which rests upon every Representative who would deal fairly with his people, to declare, frankly, his present positions and his future intentions. I should be unworthy of the high trusts you have confided to my keeping—unworthy of the kindness and confidence you have so generously lavished upon me—unworthy of my native State—unworthy of the regard of good men if I should shrigh from the preference of good men, if I should shrink from the performance of this duty now.

We have had a most exciting and protracted struggle in the organization of the House. I have voted uniformly for the Democratic nominees for the speakership. For this I am charged with the the speakership. For this I am charged with the betrayal of the Whig party, and with an abandonment of the principles upon which I was elected. And who is it that makes these charges? Is it the old-line Whigs? I have not heard of an old-line Whigs, either in my district or elsewhere, who does not indorse my course. These charges are made wing, either in my district or eisewhere, who does not indorse my course. These charges are made by the Know-Nothing press of my State, and by enonymous Know-Nothing scribblers, the latter of whom, never having had an honest motive them selves, have no conception of the thing in others. They charge ME with betraying the Whig party! They who decoyed it into their councils, and assassinated it in the dark—they who come forth from ninated it in the dark—they who come forth from their conclaves, with their hands dripping with its blood—they who met at Philadelphia in conventhe Pittsburg Gazette, then a Whig paper, and then supporting Mr. Fuller. In that speech published at the time, and vauntingly proclaimed its death—with a pharisaical affectation of party, declare that they are not "responsible for its obnoxious acts and violated pledges; that it has "elevated sectional hestility into a positive element of political power, and brought our institutions into peril." Yes, while I stand a mourner at the grave of the Whig party, they are rejoicing at its death and calumnating its life! Yet these men have the unblushing hardihood to twit me with the abandonment of that once noble party! Was ever impudence more gigantic and more absurd?

But it is sometimes softly and gently whispered that the American party is the Whig party in disguise. If this is so, they have solemnly declared a lie in their conventions, and it is a cheat and a fraud upon the Democrats in the order. So they have either abandoned their party, and have no right to abuse me, or are engaged in a fraud which makes their abuse a combliment. It ell these general to a declaration of the whigh and the property of the makes their abuse a combliment.

have either abandoned their party, and have no right to abuse me, or are engaged in a fraud which makes their abuse a compliment. I tell these gen-tlemen that they have slain my first love, and left me a political widower; and I have a perfect right to marry another party if I see proper!
I am charged with having abandoned the principles upon which I was elected. Does not every man in my district know that the Kansas-Nebraska

Does not every man know that I obtained as many Democratic when know that I obtained as many Democratic votes as I did Whig votes? Does not every man know that I declared my principles, in a speech delivered in the House of Representatives, on the 7th of April, 1854? To stop the mouths of my accusers I will give an extract from that speech. I said then, speaking of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, that—"I will not peaks long to dwell mon its party." "I will not pause long to dwell upon its party effect; for, in my judgment, the questions involved override all party considerations. It is true, this bill is presented to us as an Administration mea-sure. It is true that I am here as a Whig; but i am not here to give this Administration a factious opposition. I am not here to oppose any measure brought forward by it, merely because it is brought forward by it. I am here, uncommitted to a blind opposition or a blind support, to follow to the end the dictates of my own judgment and conscience, and the will of those who sant me PETERS, CRAGG & CO. has taken high national ground; that it has planted itself upon a great American principle—the principle of self-government; a principle involved in

He had not then this any norror of a "wind nunt after effice" denounced by his brethren in Phila-delphia. Oh, no! It would "very materially aid his prospects" to get a nomination from a regular Free-Soil convention; and as it would aid those prospects, he wanted it; and had good reasons to give why he should have it. Hear him: "Iam in favor of FREE SOIL, free speech, free labor, and free men; BEING A WILMOT PROVISO MAN UP TO THE HUB, AND UTTERLY OPPOSED TO THE EXTENSION OF SLAVERY!!!" He was up to the HUB IN FREE SOIL when he wanted a Free-Soil nomination; and I have never heard of his PRIZING OUT, until he wanted the votes of seund national men for the Speakership. He goes on: "The matter will require prudent management, and I know of no man who can accomplish it better than your self. It would be had policy to attempt it without accretainty of success. Consult with our mutual friends, Hackley and Johnson, and write me soon.

"Yours, truly, HENRY M. FULLER." Thus it appears, that on the 18th day of August, 1849, he was a "WILMOT PROVISO MAN UP TO THE HUB," and on the 17th day of January, 1856, he declares "that he never took any public position on the subject of slavery"—that his "political existence commenced since that flood!!"

will comment no further on this letter!

Mr. Fuller became a candidate for Canal Commissioner, and, while a candidate, made speeches—among others one in Alleghany City, reported in the Pittsburg Gazette, then a Whig paper, and then supporting Mr. Fuller. In that speech, pub-conservative man, Governor William Aiken—he, under the flimsy and miserable pretext of having paired off with a man who was present, being present himself, dodyed, and did not vote at all!

And now with his record fairly before you—elected upon the principles on which I was elected —I submit it to your candor, if I would not have exposed myself to the just scorn and contempt of every good man of my district, of any party, if I had voted for Henry M. Fuller! I would not William A. Richardson, of Illinois. I knew him. I had served with him in the last Congress. I knew him to be the very soul of honor. A man whose "word was as good as his bond;" a man whose large the state of "word was as good as his bond;" a man whose large heart could take all the Union into its affections; man who was all seamed with scars received in pattles for the rights of the South; a man who had been passed around by the Abolitionists (within black lines), in what they call their "roll of in-famy," because of his gallant bearing in those battles; a man who has stood unmoved while mad fanaticism poured its vials of wrath upon his head; a man who breasted the storm in "its wildest ragto the end the chotates of my own judgment and some cience, and the will of those who sent me.

they may either establish or prohibit slavery, just as they think proper.

Again: He says, in his last speech, in answer to the interrogatory, whether he believed the Wilmot provise constitutional?—

"I was not a member of the Congress of 1850, and have never been called on to either affirm or deny the constitutionality of the Wilmot provise."

"My political existence commenced since that flood; and having never taken any public positions, I am oxilling, in all frankness and candor, to do so now."

I will show you that his memory is as oblivious circumstances, either North or South, interfered in the North are not stirring the waters of sectional strife—that they never do, and is this twelfth section, on a separate and distinct vote, and by an overwhelming majority; and in the stead place a plank which means all things to all men, and of which a member of the convention.—

"He would assure the South that the twelfth section must be got rid of: He was willing to accept a compromise, but the section must be got rid of: He was willing to accept a compromise, but the section must be got rid of: He was willing to accept the Washington platform; fer, if there was circumstances, either North or South, interfered in the North or South interfered in the waters of sectional strife—that they never do, and is this twelfth section, on a separate and distinct vote, and by an overwhelming majority; and in the steady place a plank which means all things to these contrasts, may they not commend their its stead place a plank which means all things to the section, on a separate and distinct vote, and by an overwhelming majority; and in the steady place and plank which means all things to the steady place and plank which means all things to took, and plank the section,

"My political eristence commenced since that ploof; and having never taken any public position, I am willing, in all frankness and candor, to do so now."

I will show you that his memory is as oblivious as his sudden conversion is marvelous. This same Henry M. Fuller, on the 18th of August, 1849, wrote a letter to B. F. Saxton—a letter from which the following are extracts:

You state in your letter, that the FREE-SOILERS will hold a convention at Hyde Parke, on the 30th inst. There is a pretity strong probability that I will be in the field for Canal Commissioner, and it would certainly alm My prospect's very MATERIALLY to receive a Now. INATION FROM YOUR PARTY."

He had not then this holy horror of a "wild hunt after office" denounced by his brethren in Phila-ing councils that he will appoint no Roman Cath-ing the free exercise thereof." Take this case: ing councils that he will appoint no Roman Cath-olic to office, is elected. He takes an oath to sup-port the Constitution of the United States. That Constitution says, that "no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States." Suppose, then, a man is presented for office: does he not have to inquire, under his first oath, if the man is a Catholic? If he is, then he must refuse him on that account. If he does so refuse him, he violates his last oath, because he then swore he would make "no religious test." Is comment necessary?

But I have been asked if I would vote for a man who owes temporal allegiance to a foreign Power? I answer, no. I would not vote fer any man, of any religion, for any office, who is bound by such

As to a spiritual allegiance, my understanding

Protestant disagrees with me, and I will not elaborate them further.

I stated to you, that the great reason for my having ever gone into a council was, I was assured that the preservation of the Union was the "rock on which they built their church"—that men who joined in the North, as well as the South, made a "burnt offering" of their prejudices, and joined with hands locked in hands in a living chain around the Constitution, in a common brotherhood, and in a common defence. I was told, too, that I could withdraw if I was not pleased.

I ask every Know-Nothing who reads this, if such was not his understanding of the objects of the American order? Then I ask them to lay aside their partialities and prejudices, and, thinkingly as patriots, to look back at its history.

It met in Convention at Philadelphia in June last—it laid down a platform—it put forth the celebrated twelfth section.

Protestant disagrees with me, and I will not elaborated to you therefore, as sound, national, coservative party?—if every intelligent matched, as a sound, national, coservative party?—if every intelligent matched. As to the great catch-words, "Americans shall use America."—I am in favor of Americans ruling America. They do, they always have, and they always will rale America.

But who are Americans? Your laws declare that, when a man has been here five years—when he will, under oath, renounce all allegiance to any foreign prince, potentate, or Power—when he will prove that he is of good moral character—attached to the institutions of the United States—he may be declared an American, and your law makes him a citizen. It is a fraud upon him, if you do not give him all the rights of citizen-shrade twelfth section.

ebrated twelfth section. Here it is:

"Resolved, That the American party, having risen upon the ruins, and in spite of the opposition, of the Whig and Democratic parties, cannot be held in any manner responsible for the obnoxious acts or violated piedges of either; that the systematic agitation of the silvery question by those parties has elevated section al hostility into a positive element of political power, and brought our institutions into perlis; it has, therefore, become the imperative duty of the American party to interpose for the purpose of giving peace to the country and perpetuity to the Union; that, as experience has shown it impossible to reconcile opinions so extreme as those that separate the disputants, and as there can be no dishonor in submitting to the laws, the National Council has deemed it the best guarantee of common justice and future peace to abide by and maintain the existing laws upon the subject of slavery as a final and conclusive settlement of that subject, in spirit and in substance.

"And regarding it the highest duty to avow their

"And regarding it the highest duty to avow their opinions upon a subject so important in distinct and unequivocal terms, it is hereby declared, as the sense of this National Council, that Congress possesses no power of the constitution to legislate non the subject en, many a country, that Congress possesses no pow-er, under the Constitution, to legislate upon the subject of slavery in the States where it does or may exist, or to exclude any State from admission into the Union, because its constitution does or does not recognize the institution of slavery as a part of its social system; institution of slavery as a part of its social system; and expressly pretermitting any expression of opinion upon the power of Congress to establish or prohibit slavery in any Territory, it is the sense of the National Council that Congress ought not to legislate upon the subject of slavery within the Territories of the United States, and that any interference by Congress with slavery as it exists in the District of Columbia, would be a violation of the spirit and intention of the compact by which the State of Maryland ceded the District to the United States, and a breach of the national faith.

There is a platform on the subject of slavery (with the exception of a little pretermitting) sound—one upon which the South could stand. They were conservative and just; but what did the northern and the largest portion of this so eminently national party do? They repudiated this section; they spit upon it; they met together in their State councils, and there these conservative Union-savers were not excluded.

I give you a resolution passed by a Know-Noth-I give you a resolution passed by a Know-Nothing convention at Cincinnati in November last, composed of delegates from seven of the northern and northwestern States. They declare—"That the repeal of the Missouri compromise was an intraction of the plighted faith of the nation, and that is should be restored; and if efforts to that end should fail, congress should refuse to admit into the Union any State tolerating slavery which shall be formed out of any portion of the territory from which that institution was excluded by that compromise."

Yes, they will not admit Knows if she applies

Yes, they will not admit Kansas if she applies for admission as a slave State; thus, according to the language of Mr. Clay, and thus, as every intelligent man knows, leading to the "dissolution of the Union by a bloody road." You see by this resolution how the Know-Nothings in the northwestern States stand. I will show you how they stand in the middle States. In the Legislature of Pennsylvania, the Know-Nothings and the Black Republicans, true to their instincts and actions, FUSED, and they declared, on the 12th day of January, 1856, in the following form, to wit:

"He would assure the South that the twelfth sect must be got rid of. He was willing to accept a commise, but the section must be got rid of: he was will to accept the Washington platform; for, if there anything in it, it was so covered up with verbiage ta President would be elected before the people wo find out what it was all about." [Tumultuous laught ton platform," presented by one Parson French S. Evans—the defeated Black Republican candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms of the present House—was adopted by that convention!

Do you want more proof? I think every intel-

"American party is no longer united. Raise the Republican banner. LET THERE BE NO FURTHER EXTENSION OF SLAVERY. THE AMERICANS ARE WITH YOU." And the still further significant fact, that after the express repudiation of the twelfth section, they denounce in their platform the repeal of the convention, sitting at the same time, that the-

Missouri compromise line.

And now—I do not ask the aspirants for my place—I do not ask those who want to go as Know-Nothings to the Legislature—those who want to be sheriffs, county judges, squires, or constables, is that we all owe that allegiance to a Power &c.—but I ask the true men of my district—the whose Throne is outside of the United States—to real people, where I have always found my friends God, in Heaven!

But in all these views, perhaps, no Catholic or Protestant disagrees with me, and I will not elaborate them further.

Teal people, where I have always found my friends — the men who have no object but the good of their country at heart, to do as I have done— abandon this organization — if it has not failed— utterly, completely, entirely failed, as a sound,

It met in Convention at Philadelphia in June last—it laid down a platform—it put forth the celebrated twelfth section. Here it is:

"Resolved, That the American party, having risen upon the ruins, and in spite of the opposition, of the Whig and Democratic parties, cannot be held in any manner responsible for the obnoxious acts or violated pledges of either; that the systematic agitation of the sivery question by those parties has elevated sectional hostility into a positive element of political power, and brought our institutions into peril; it has, therefore, become the imperative duty of the American party to interpose for the purpose of giving peace to the country and perpetuity to the Union; that, as experience has shown it impossible to reconcile opinions so extreme as the ethat separate the disputants, and as there can be no dishonor in submitting to the laws, the National Council has deemed it the best guarantee of common justice and tuture peace to abide by and maintain the existing laws upon the subject, in spirit and in eighteen months old! He is one of the first intellects of our State, or any State. He has been my political friend—my personal friend—my sup-porter in every aspiration. I submit it to you, if there is not something radically wrong in an or-ganization which would prohibit me from voting for him, merely because he was born outside of the United States, though brought here when a mere child! I have used his name without his authority. I know he will pardon me, when he sees that I have only used it to illustrate more strongly to cur people, than I could by a hundred arguments, the absurdity of this indiscriminate proscription of foreign-born men from office.

If the despotisms of the Old World should ever attempt to destroy our Government by sending their population here, I will not, as your Repre-sentative, pause to talk or argue about our natu-ralization laws. I shall speak and vote for pro-hibiting any foreigner from treading his foot upon our soil! I shall strike at the root—not waste my time and energies in lopping off the branches

I have been often asked if I am not in favor of re-organizing the Whig party? I answer that, in the present condition of parties and the country, in my judgment, such an effort can do no good, and might do great harm.

I say to you, that we have no sound material North out of which to reconstruct that party. Look back at the past. Every Whig Representative from the North, in 1849, voted for the Wilmot proviso. But three of them out of seventy-three voted for the fugitive slave law—that law which is commanded by the Constitution itself? Not one Whig north of Mason and Dixon's line voted for the Kansas-Nebraska bill of 1854! On all these measures a majority of the northern Democrats measures a majority of the northern Democrats.

President, and gets possession of both Houses of President, and gets possession of both Houses of Congress, it will carry out its infamous circle of Congress; the repeal of the fugitive slave law, the abolishment of slavery in the District of Columbia, interdict the inter-slave trade between the States, restore the Missouri restriction, and refuse to admit any more slave States! Who is it that does not know the Union would not survive an hour? Our danger is not from the Pope, not from foreigners, but is from the Abolitionists. What, then, is our first solemn, patriotic duty? It is that we should band together as one man. It is that we should each bring his former prejudices that we should each bring his former prejudices and lay them down upon the altar of our country— that we should leave the past to "bury its own Yes, this infamous sentiment, instead of being received with patriotic indignation, was received with "tumultuous laughter!" and the "Washing-dead," and look to and fight alone for the preservation of the Constitution and the Union!

I have seen the Democracy come down from the North and up from the South, and gathering in solid column around the Constitution, declare that the rights of the South, the just equality of the ligent, honest man in my district, who is not an aspirant for office, will exclaim—"Hold, enough!" But for the benefit of the Know-Nothing aspirants for my place in the district, I will give two more facts. That the northern portion of that convention telegraph to the Black Republican Pittsburg Under God, I believe that the Democratic is the convention, sitting at the same time, that the only political organization with which we can beat back this abolition horde from the Capitol. While I thus believe, I shall continue to act with them; und when the fight is done, when the victory is achieved, when our gallant old ship is again affoat in the sunshine and upon quiet seas, I shall turn round to my Democratic brethren, and, if I have any unadjusted quarreis, I will settle them then, n And now, fellow-citizens, I submit if I have not redeemed my pledge, that I would set myself fairly, fully, frankly before you? I trust that my position will meet with your approval. If it should not. have only to say that it has been taken after due deliberation—taken under a solemn sense of duty to you and the country. My opinions are my honest convictions, and if disapproved, I can retire from office. I cannot yield those convictions. I throw myself upon a generosity and kindness which took me by the hand when all obscure and unknown and lifted me up to a seat in the Congress of the United States, and which, when slandered and abused in my last canvass, during my absence, sustained me with an emphatic indorsement. I submit it fearlessly, confidently to you, whether I shall trait fearlessly, confidently to you, whether I shall return to my home under the frown of your condemnation, or whether I will again be greeted with that plaudit ever so dear to a public man, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant!"

A Hint to Ruffians.

At the recent election for municipal officers in Chi-cago a gang of lawless Irish ruffians took possession of the polls of the Seventh Ward, and drove off every person who they thought intended voting the American ticket.—Exchange. We have only to say that the American citizens who suffered themselves to be thus driven from the polls by "a gang of lawless Irish ruffians," fully deserved the disfranchisement to which they were subjected. American citizens who will not stand up and yote in spite of Irish clubs or Irish "fire and steel," are basely unworthy of their glorious birthright.

PULASKI'S BANNER. When the dying flame of day Through the chancel shot its ray,
Far the glimmering tapers shed
Faint light on the cowled head,
And the censer, burning, swung—
When before the altar hung
That proud Banner, which, with prayer,
Had been consecrated there,
And the Nuns's weet hymn was heard the while,
Sung low, in the dim, mysterious aisle:

Take thy BANNER! may it wave Take thy BANNER: may it wave Proudly o'er the good and brave When the battle's distant wail Breaks the Sabbath o' our vale, When the clarion music thrills To the heart of these lone hills, When the spear in conflict shakes, And the strong lance shivering breaks. The statistical tables of mortality show eduction in this country of the proportion of deaths from pulmonary diseases. Doctor Ayer attribute this result to the effect of his Cherry Pectoral. He also asserts that the cures from his Cathartic Pills give reason to believe they will, as they come into more general use, materially reduce the mor tality from those particular diseases for which they are designed. From what we know of his preparations, we think he has grounds for his claims, and if he has, it is an attainment of which an Emperor might be proud. SPECIAL NOTICES. A Human Life Saved!

Dowagiac, Mich., March 11, 1856 J. A. RHODES, ESQ.—Dear Sir: As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

while using it, until my lungs and liver were congested schnapps. That name belongs expressly to my article; all others are counterfeits and impositions on the and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to public. they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Ague CURE, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bow. bars on steamboats and in hotels, who fill my empty els, and produced a permanent cure in a short time." as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken many quantity of quinine and specifics without any such places, to MARK THE APPEARANCE OF THE BOTTLE; good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a to refuse to drink, unless a fresh bottle is op by ttle of Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bot-say his case was the same as H. M.'s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

Yours with respect,

A. HUNTINGTON. it. Sam is hard to beat. The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the wast number of like certifiof no better tenor that the value had to be the still greater amount that is continually youring in to me. One thing more. Last year I had occasion to CAU-TION THE PUBLIC in these words : "I notice one firm who have taken one of "ay general cir-culars, substituted the name of their nostriam for my medicine, and then, with brazen impudence, end their pamphlet with the exclamation, Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares," &c.

Now I take pleasure in saying that the CAUTION r ferred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is There are several other industrious people who are SARSAPARILLA AND VERSICOLA, For the cure of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheunatism, and Blood Impurities generally.

MIDDLETOWN, JEFFERSON Co., Ky., Aug. 13, 1855. Dr. Vaughan-Dear Sir: In the summer of 1852 1 had a young black boy, about two years old, severely had a young black boy, about two years old, severely afflicted with an eruptive disease of some kind. His whole body, and more especially his head, arms, and legs, were one ass of running matter. I had lost two children about the same age, and of the same parents, with the same kind of eruptions, and I feltsure this one would also die; but, luckily, I was recommended to use your "Dr. Blackwell's Barsaparilla and Versicola," which I am happy to inform you, from the use of some fiveor six bottles, entirely cured him.

Respectfully yours,

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 31, 1865.

Dr. VAUGHAN—Dear Sir: I have used "Dr. Blackwell Sarsaparilla and Versicola" for a chronic disease of the stomach and liver, with severe constipation of the bowels and tendency of the blood to the head. I of the stomach and liver, with several commanders the bowels and tendency of the blood to the head. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a superior alterative and blood purifier. It acts as a gentle cathartic, and is pleasant to the taste.

had cerusically in the confirmed Consumption, and for cure Ague and Fever, knewnorth of seen it care which are recommended it to others, reversely and cases which were stated of the confirmed confirmed cases and in every instance a cure was effected. He has seen it cure Ague and Fever, kneumatism, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsis, Fevers, violent Coughs, and cases which were said to be confirmed Consumption, and nearly every other disease for which it is used. He remarks it is difficult to know what disease it will not relieve or cure, and as a Blood Purifier, and spring and fall medicine, he has never seen its equal. He cheerfully recommends it on all occasions, and believes it to be the most valuable remedy extant.

Miss A Botts, co. pugn. No doubt he feels aggrieved at the depreciation of the sale of his Schnapps, which is manifest to all, since mine has been brought into competition with his. Not only have I succeeded in competing with him in quality, but the constant and increasing demand for my article will soon satisfy him that his caution to the citizens of the "Southern and Western States" will Miss A Botts, co. Miss O Stewart, do. avail him nothing as far as I am concerned. The character of my Schiedam Schnapps is too well estabished in those States to be injured by any such invidi ous publication. The motive of his advertisement is obvious to every one, and feeling well satisfied that all such missiles thrown at me by him will fall harmless at my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public, publish my Copy Right, entered in the Southern District of New York, on the 28th of December, 1854: crict of New York, on the 28th of December, 1854:

(COPY BIGHT).

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, 5S.

Be it remembered, That on the twenty-eighth day of December, Anno Domini 1854, Barnard L. Simpson, of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a print or label, the title of which is in the words following, to-wit: "Barnard L. Simpson's Aromatic Schiedam Juniper Schnapps, a superior Tonic Anti-Dyspeptic Invigorating Cordial," the right whereof he claims as author and proprietor, in conformity with an act of Congress, entitled "An act to amend the several acts respecting copy rights." (ERU. W. MORTON, Clerk of the Southern District of New York.)

The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town

The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town in Holland, called "Shiedam," which is celebrated as a place of extensive juniper plantations and numerous listilleries of the above article, which has been known as 'Schnapps" for centuries.

Does it not appear, now, poor and deceitful for U. W. to attempt to make a wrong and untrue impression on the public by asserting that the name "Schiedam chnapps" belongs exclusively to his article, and that all others are counterfeits and impositions?

U. W. has no monopoly, and no more right for the sole importation of Schiedam Schnapps than anybody else, and he may rest assured that I shall be the last to submit to his unjustifiable pretensions.

The great and increasing demand for my Genuine Schiedam Schnapps in Louisville, and throughout Kencucky, has induced me to appoint Messrs. Clark & Johnson, Wholesale Druggists, No. 509 Main street, as my agents for supplying the trade at my regular prices, and they will always be furnished with a full stock of both quarts and pints, safely packed, in good shipping

I take pleasure on this occasion to tender my sincer hanks to the public in general, and to my friends in particular, for the kind liberality with which they have patronized me from my commencement of this enter orize, and I assure them that I shall continue to pro vide them always with a genuine and superior article of Schiedam Schnapps.

B. L. SIMPSON.

Caution to Western Merchants! WOLFE'S

Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps. This celebrated medicinal beverage is manufactured at the factory of the undersigned, at Schiedam, Hol and. He is the sole importer, as well as the exclusive manufacturer of the article; and no preparation bear ing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured either from his establishment in New York, or from his igents in other cities, is genuine and reliable.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebra-ted grain-growing districts; is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disa-greeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visita-tion to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the west, the south, and southwest are peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is re commended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession. It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one lozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country mer cants.

CONGRESSIONAL. WASHINGTON, April 1.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward reported the House resolu-tion enlarging the custom house, post office, and federal court building at Buffalo, which was passed. Mr. Mason, from the Committee on Foreign Re-lations, reported a joint resolution permitting Dr. Kane, and the officers associated with the expedition to the Arctic seas in search of Dr. Franklin, to accept such token of acknowledgment therefor as the Government of Britain may please to present in accordance with its wishes on the subject. Mr. Cass hoped the resolution would be imme diately passed.

Mr. Crittenden was quite willing that all prope acknowledgment should be given Dr. Kane by this Government, but he thought it a bad precedent to depart from the ancient usage. Mr. Seward inquired whether, under the rescluiion, a little nobility could not be conferred on Dr. Mr. Mason had no idea that the British Govern

The further consideration of the subject wa whether her title is good or bad, or whether she had any at all, since she has abandoned it all, be it more or less. A refusal or neglect to carry out the stipulations of the treaty, although involving bad faith, does not necessarily involve war. Great Britain does not pretend to interfere with our rights, nor to do anything conflicting with our interests, and we should wait until she gives occasion, before we interfere in Central American affairs.

If we expel her in that quarter, not one foot of territory will be ours. We have no claim to it.

As to giving Britain a year's notice to vacate it, and in the mean time prepare for war, he was opposed to.

Mr. Cass said he had watched the manifestations of public sentiment in England, and could see no use in a continued protesting, unless some more definite action be taken. He did not suppose England would retract at all. It was not

Why should she, when she has got all she wants?
The true question is, what ought we do? Shall we centime to submit, or shall we take a decided stand, and enforce and maintain our rights? Britain has changed her grounds three times in regard to the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. As fast as she was driven from one unattainable position she took refuge in another.

Dr. Price's Chronic Specific. THIS REMEDY CERTAINLY has more efficacy than any remedy ever offered to the afflicted. This cannot be successfully controverted, as the evidence in its favor is so strong and weighty. We will not give a long array of certificates. We will give but few, and those shall be from gentlemen high in standing and widely known, such as Hon. J. R. Underwood, Rev. Wm. L. Breckinridge, Judge Asher Graham, Judge Wm. V. Loving, Dr. Haggard, and Dr. L. C. Kotter.

Dr. PRICE'S CHRONIC SPECIFIC is the best Alterative, Tonic, and Blood Purifier ever compounded. It is adapted to cure Scrofula, White Swelling, Incipient Consumption, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, General Debility. Rheumatism, Secondary Syphilis, Sore Eyes, and all Cutaneous Diseases, &c.

From Hon. J. R. Underwood. I have seen many of Dr. Price's patients afflicted with the Scrofula, both before and after they were healed. It is certain that ulcers of the most inveterate character seemed to yield readily to his Chronic Specific. I have seen many certificates in possession of Dr. Price, bearing testimony to his entire success.

Bowling Green, Ky. JOS. R. UNDERWOOD.

From Rev. Wm. L. Breckinridge. A servant girl in my family was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. Notwithstanding she had medical treat ment, upon the whole she grew worse, until I feared that she would become totally blind. She was placed under Dr. Price's treatment, and to all appearances a radical cure was performed. For several months past she has seemed to me, as she does now, to be perfectly free from any defect or soreness of the eyes, and to be in perfect health otherwise.

Louisville, Ky. WM. L. BRECKINRIDGE.

From Judge Asher Graham, (Formerly a member of the Bench of the Court of Appeals).

I have seen some of Dr. Price's patients. They appeared to have been very much diseased, almost beyond all bopes of recovery. They now seem to be perfectly relieved.

Bowling Green, Kv.

ASHER GRAHAM. Bowling Green, Ky.

From Judge Wm. V. Loving, From Judge Wm. V. Loving,

(The American Candidate for Governor).

I have seen several of Dr. Price's patients; amongs others, Mr. S. H. Dickerson, of Monroe co. At the time I saw him he was diseased from head to foot. The left side of his face and neck was greatly enlarged and swollen. All of the left side of his neck, breast, and right shoulder were a mass of filthy diseases and running sores. As he would work his arms, the air would escape from deep ulcers under his collar bones, causing filthy matter and blood to bubble out. The use of the probe had proved that some of these ulcers extended into the hollow of the body. Mr. Dickerson put himself under Dr. Price's treatment, who administered his Ohronic Specific, and, strangeto tell, a permanent cure was effected.

WM.V.LOVING.

Bowling Green, Ky.

From Dr. D. R. Haggard, (President of the Board of Internal Improvement)." residence.

festions of the work cases that have occurred kentucky have been circled by the use of his Chron-Specific. When all hope had fled, he was applied to, dhis treatment restored them to perfect health aree of these cases were cured within a few miles of vesidence.

D. R. HAGGARD.

All persons who need Dr. Price's Chronic Specific, and doubt its efficacy, are referred to the distinguished gentlemen who have certified to the efficacy of the remedy. Lacour's Improved Process, For manufacturing Liquors, Cordials, Effervescing Beverages, Vinegar, Bitters, Syrups, Essences, Wines, &c.

ALL KINDS OF LIQUOR CAN BE MANUFACTURED FOR 12 TO 50 CENTS PER GALLON. FOR 12 TO 50 CERTS PER GALLON.

A N OUTLAY OF $2 WILL FUR
the apparatus for converting Whisky and Water into the strongest Vinegar in 36 hours, at a cost of two to three cents per gallon.

The only vessels necessary for this purpose are Wine or Whisky barrels. The substances with which they are filled, for the purpose of making Vinegar, can be found in any of the forests of America. As simple as this process may appear for the production of Vinegar, the publishers will forfiel $100 for every failure.

The most approved methods are given for constructing Rectifiers. Complete instructions for bottling and barreling all kinds of liquors, and for rendering the appearance of old barrels new, and for giving age to new barrels. Instructions for detecting impurities or adulterations in all kinds of liquors, and for distinguishing French from other qualities of Brandy. Of the liquors mentioned below, the shook givestwo modes of making them; by the first they are made "off hand."
requiring only the admixture of the materials as given in the receipts. These are cheap liquors; their qualities will be artificial strength, fine taste, and beautiful color.
The second mode requires the use of apparatus, and a certain length of time is allowed for the spirit to mellow.
These cannot be distinguished from the best imported liquors.

New Orleans, La.

The great value of this work has been sufficiently proved by its adoption as a text book by the various iquor manufacturers of the city of New York.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE PRESS. proved by its adoption as a text book by the various liquor manufacturers of the city of New York.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE PAESS.

This work will be found to supply the dealer in liquors, wines, vinegar, &c., with a thorough teacher and guide amid all the varied and intricate processes of this business.—N. O. Picapune.

Itwere a work of supereogation to praise a book of Mons. Lacour's writing. The volume before us is remarkable for its completeness and the exact practical directions which it gives. Old manufacturers will find all of the old modes entirely superseded. The use of the old formulas would appear as the "foam of folly" in the presence of the new ones suggested in this work. One of the principal objects appears to be to avoid, as far as possible, the use of apparatus or expensive (to the operator) appliances of any kind in the manufacture of liquors, &c.—New York Times.

This volume contains the art of preparing and put ting up the whole list of drinkables, from a choice pipe of Otard Dupuy, of the vintage of 1785, to a simple and economical manner of making cider without apples, by fermentation. A friend has applied the recipe for converting 23 gallons of whisky into 40 gallons with the most satisfactory results. The latter quality does not possess an equal amount of intoxicating properties to the former, though the 40 gallons was of a much finer color, taste, and odor.—New York Mechanic.

This much talked of book is at hand. It contains a mass of information that is perfectly astonishing, and could only have been acquired from actual observation. If you wish to see ingenuity applied, look in a copy of Lacour on Liquor. Practicability appears to have been the design of the author. No delays are necessary to accretain the results of an application of a recipe. We speak from actual observation.—Phil. Sus.

This work will revolutionize the presentstyle of manufacturing liquors.—New York Heraid.

Lacour of head of every housekeeper in the country. The copyright forbids, or we would give our readers, this contains an immense number of orbitals for making very variety of liquors, wines, cordials, bitters, syrups, rinegar, &c. The work is published by subscription; he subscribers are cealers and importers of liquors in his city. This alone would speak more in favor of the reliability of the work than could be otherwise said. jall d3m W.O. Delta. Quit Drinking Poisonous Liquors!

ACOUR'S PATENT IMPROVED PROCESS Formaking all kinds of Liquors and Vinegar, NSTANTLY, BY THE USE OF Lacour's Essential Oils.
These Oils are obtained by Distillation at the Chemical Laboratory (parish of Jefferson) of Fierre Lacour, Author of Lacour's Chemical Manipulations, Lacour on the Manufacture of Lical Manipulations and Lacour of Lical Ma ical Manipulations, Lacour on the Manufacture of Li-quors, &c.

LACOUR'S OIL OF COGNAC, converts neutral spi-rit to a superior imitation of Imported Brandics, viz: Otard, Sarzerac, Marett Cognac, Foultney, Seignette, United Vineyard Proprietors, Castillion, and London Dock Brandies. The Liquors will have a full fruity fla-vor, and a beautiful sparkling color. Common Rectified Whisky will be changed, by the use of the Oil of Cog-nac, to New York Brandy, Pine Apple Brandy, com-mon Cognac Brandy, &c. nac, to New York Brandy, Pine Apple Brandy, common Cognac Brandy, &c.
LACOUR'S OIL OF RYE changes common Rectified Whisky to Monongahela Rye Whisky, old Virginia Malt Whisky, Bourbon Whisky, &c.
OIL OF CEDRAT changes common Rectified Whisky to Id Irish Malt Whisky, and a superior article of Scotch Whisky.
OIL OF PEACH changes common Whisky to Virginia Peach Brandy, &c. Oil Of Peach and Oil of Cognac will convert common Whisky to Apple Brandy.
OIL OF PEACH changes common Whisky to Holland Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, Rose Gin, Swan Gin, English Gin, &c.
LACOUR'S CONGENTRATED ACID Will, in five hours after being nixed, change five gallons of good Vinegar and twenty-five gallons of water, to thirty good lons of the most acid Vinegar that can be found in the market. By the use of Lacour's Cincentrated Acid, Vinegar can be made for one dollar and sixty cents per barrel. warket. By the use of Dacouler to Character and sixty cents per barrel.

FOR MAKING LIQUORS, Lacour's Oils require no preparation—only pouring the Oil into the Whisky and shake well. The Liquids thus made will have a fine natural aroma—a full, rich, oily taste—a beautiful transparent color and a fine bead. Lacour's Oils exert three distinct properties in converting common Whisky to Brandy, Gin, &c. The first property combines with and subsides in the form of Floculent particles the whole of the grain oil, (Amylic Alcohol.) The whisky is thus deprived of that peculiar irritating and burning taste, and becomes a neutral spirit; the second property consists in an oily mucilagineus taste imparted to the Liquor, which remders it mellow, and inparts an appearance of great age; the third property is exhibited in the rich, vinous, nuity odor that is imparted to the Liquor, which renders distinction from the Genuine Brands impossible.

These Oils are put up in quart bottles, each bottle contains sufficient Oil for making 300 gallons of liquor. Full and comprehensive directions accompany the bottles. Price, $2 per bottle.
